

Supplementary Table 5: Table of Additional Survey Questions (True/ False)

Question	Hospital Doctors n= 187		Nurses n= 292		Primary Care Physicians n=40	P value
	Consultant n= 69	NCHDs n= 118	CNM/CNS/ANP n= 150	Staff Nurses n=142
True/ False Questions:
A patient has a right to decline a treatment: True/ False/ DK Correct response (True), n (%)	69 (100.0)	118 (100.0)	150 (100.0)	140 (98.6)	40 (100.0)	0.26
A patient with decision-making capacity, has a right to make a DNAR order, in the same way they can decline a treatment: Correct response (True), n (%)	61 (88.4)	114 (96.6)	133 (88.7)	123 (86.6)	39 (97.5)	0.03
A DNAR order can be made following direct discussion with a patient who has decision-making capacity: Correct response (True), n (%)	62 (89.9)	108 (91.5)	139 (92.7)	132 (93.0)	37 (92.5)	0.95

DK, Don't Know;

Supplementary Table 5: Table of Additional Survey Questions (True/ False)

In a patient lacking decision-making capacity, who has not expressed their wishes previously, a decision regarding resuscitation can be made in their best interests by their consultant, treating SpR/ Registrar/ GP, commonly in consultation with their family:
Correct response (True), n (%)	67 (97.1)	114 (96.6)	147 (98.0)	136 (95.8)	34 (85.0)	0.006